

Innovation Office

Deputy of Education and Research of Imam Reza General Hospital

Targets

1. Assisting physicians, students and staff of the center to generate ideas and develop it
2. Providing advice for the commercialization of technological projects
3. Training of faculty members, students and staff of the center with the business environment
4. Providing consulting services about innovation ideas
5. Contribute to the development of medical services in the field of new technologies of diagnosis, treatment and medical care
6. Creating an atmosphere of cooperation through innovation between different sciences
7. Cooperation with internal and external research center and development of education, research, technology and transfer of knowledge related to health services

Imam Reza General Hospital
Tabriz, Iran

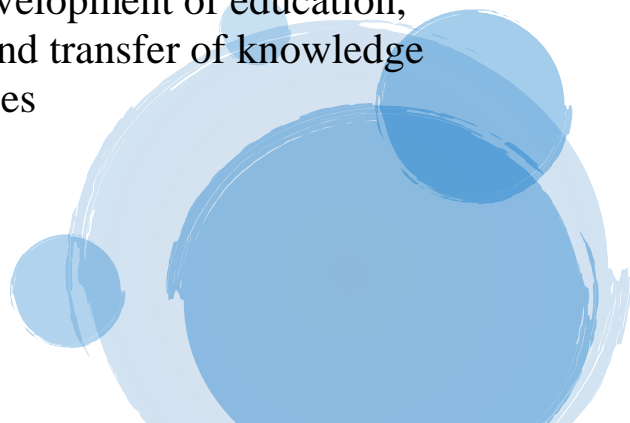

041-33373960

Imam_Reza_ER@tbzmed.ac.ir imamreza-en.tbzmed.ac.ir

Programs and activities

1. Providing consulting services for writing technological design proposals, patents, commercial and industrial designs, as well as consulting for commercialization of designs
2. Holding intellectual property training and business plans workshops
3. Providing physical space for start-up companies through the Center for Innovation and Health Acceleration
4. Providing laboratory facilities that are available in the university unit
5. Monitoring the development and realization of ideas
6. Funding from support institutions to set up and effectively operate knowledge-based companies in the field of treatment
7. Allocating awards support to medical centers, colleges, university departments, faculty and staff to provide and promote innovative applications in the medical sector in order to reduce health care costs and better results

