

The main policies of Imam Reza Medical Research, Training and Treatment General Hospital

- 1- This center is in line and coordinated to perform the policies of the organizations which is relevant to ministry and university.
- 2- One of the priorities of this center is maintaining and promoting patient safety to encourage patients to participate in treatment and education which are relevant to treatment affairs.
- 3- Personnel and physicians are the most precious sources of this center; therefore, the quantitative and qualitative improvement of physicians, personnel, and learners based on requirements assessment is one of the priorities of this center.
- 4- One of the policy priorities of this center is developing welfare facilities and increasing the satisfaction of staff and clients.
- 5- Using up-to-date knowledge and technology in providing educational, therapeutic, diagnostic and research services is one of the priorities of this center.
- 6- This center is known as the suppliers and receivers through cooperation, coordination, establishing mutual collaboration and appropriate communication with supervisory organizations.
- 7- One of the policies of this center is using the capacities of donators and the private sector in the development and management of the center's services.
- 8- One of the policies of this center is continuous improvement of productivity, quality of services, obtaining the highest level of accreditation and patient safety standards.
- 9- Scientific management of resources is one of the policies of this center.
- 10- One of the priorities of this center is risk management, an appropriate response to the treatment and care needs of probable crises.